Tenth Issue of Stock.

Office of Treasurer, 1907 Pa. ave. n. w.

Regular monthly meetings second Tuesday in each month at 8 p. m., southwest corner Pa. avé. and 19th st. n. w. Next meeting on the 11th instant.

Books still open for subscriptions to tenth series. Shares 8200 each; payments $1 each per month, commencing with January, 1895; $4 per share will therefore have to be paid on stock taken now, and $1 per share for subsequent months.

On shares withdrawn before maturity and on loans settled before monthly payments on stock equal the debt 6 per cent interest is allowed. The interest on stock paid on to maturity or paid on until loans thereon are equaled has through our arrangement for distribution of the strowing surplus shortened the time for monthly payments about twelve months, and making the interest thereon much greater than 6 per cent. cent:
Average amount loaned per share during past year was $1.79.60, the monthly payment thereon being $1
on stock and $1 as interest.
No doubtful loans are made, consequently no losses occur.

We have a careful and economical management and promise you more interest than some others allow. Come in and save your money or obtain loans if you desire them at much less extense than you can obtain the management approximately.

Secretary Gresham has cabled to Minister Thompson at Constantinople a strong expression of the President's views on the outrage, and demanding not only prompt reparation for the burned seminary, but the punishment of all parties found guilty in the matter. Minister Thompson is instructed that no alleged prior acts of students are to affect the rights of the matter and to dispatch a special messenger if necessary to Consul Jewett and see to the minister is to act-promptly and advise the department by cable. No effort is to be relaxed in securing the legal rights of our citizens in Turkey.

Secretary Evarts was then at the head of the State Department. He was not favorably impressed with the idea of marking the spot with a monument and submitted instead a plan for an edifice with four walls and a tower something on the order of a mausoleum. Gen. Casey did not endeavor to interfere on this point. He held that in the interests of the public generally a landing place from the river was an absolute necessity. To provide for this he submitted a plan for a wharf to be constructed of actions.
